Organization Dashboard

You can access your Organization Dashboard from the left-navigation.

The organization dashboard includes high-level data from across all of your organization’s events.

The organization dashboard will include data from co-hosted events only for the primary host of the event.

The organization dashboard will NOT include data from events at sub-organizations. It only shows data from the organization that you are currently viewing.